

Specialty alarm activation devices

Tunstall creates custom made sensors and switches tailored to a client's abilities and limitations. Two examples of this are the puffer switch and pneumatic switch. Designed for people with limited or no use of their hands, the puffer switch activates an alarm call when the user blows in the tube. Similarly, the pneumatic switch requires only a little pressure anywhere on the large pad to activate an alarm call.

All the assurance you need

Tunstall